

URBAN THEOLOGY UNION

The Urban Theology Union (UTU) is a community of Christian disciples from different traditions with a commitment to seeing God at work in marginal places.

Join the Urban Theology Union

UTU members help one another bring faith to life and life to faith. Because UTU is a member-led charity it is self-resourcing and independent of its partners but co-dependent on its membership – You! UTU is a growing organization because we are learning how to engage more deeply with our membership, and learning how to let them lead their own spiritual and social movement.

A Community of Members

UTU is a member-led organization committed to social and spiritual transformations and academic excellence for the gospel.

A Crucible of Discipleship

UTU offers bespoke training and discipleship opportunities for groups. Our staff would welcome a conversation about what training would suit your context.

A College of Students, Staff, and Researchers

UTU is a Constituent College of Luther King House for our Manchester University Diploma, MA, or PhD in Contextual theology.

A Centre for Equipping

The Urban Theology Unit in Sheffield hosts a teaching suite, comprehensive library, and meeting space. The Unit is just a few minutes' walk from Sheffield bus and rail stations and easily accessible by park and ride.

Objects of the Company

1. The promotion of the Christian religion and the development of Christian ministry in urban communities;
2. The promotion and provision of schemes of study and training including courses and lectures for ordained and lay people and of research projects and the publication of the results of such research, directed at relating Christianity to the needs and opportunities of urban communities;
3. The promotion of such other charitable purposes as may from time to time be determined.

Benefits of Membership

- Every individual member shall:
- Be given due notice of every General meeting in writing or by any other means provided in the Articles of Association
- Have one vote at any General meeting so called
- Receive annually a free copy of the latest UTU publication
- Receive mailings three times per year, which include our UTU News magazine, AGM papers, and financial and other information as appropriate
- Have use of all UTU resource rooms and library facilities, from which books may be borrowed free of charge
- Have the benefit of reduced rates for UTU's Summer Schools programme and some courses run by UTU
