

Election Night Score Card

Pulling an all-nighter on Thursday? Based on Survation’s ‘Nowcast’,<sup>1</sup> here are all the predicted changes up until 5 am.<sup>2</sup>

Survation expect the Conservatives to win 25 seats overall and Labour to lose 17 overall.

By 3 am you will have a sense of if this is right from the results in the first table and by 4 am you should be able to go to bed and sob or stay up and celebrate based on the second table.

If you are still up at 5 am and haven’t snapped chewed up all your pencils then you can even fill in the third one.

*Leave vote may not map exactly to constituency.
