

Legacies of Slavery Conference 4 October—5 October

We are now taking bookings for our Synod-wide conference on the Legacies of Slavery from Tuesday, 4 October to Wednesday 5 October 2022. PLEASE NOTE: Next week we will be opening the invitation beyond the North Western Synod. This will be your last chance to be guaranteed a place on the conference.

Keynoting the event will be widely respected scholar and sought-after speaker, Professor Anthony G. Reddie, Director of the Oxford Centre for Religion and Culture at Regent's Park College. Speaking of his work, Professor Elaine Graham writes, "[Prof. Reddie] forges the wisdom of Black theology into a powerful tool for change - not just to the way we think but to how we live.'

Venue: Hilton Manchester, 303 Deansgate, Manchester M3 4LQ There will be a nominal charge of £30 per delegate: the conference will include speakers, accommodation and all meals. It is much more important that you attend, than that we have your money, so if the charge presents any obstacle to you, please contact the Synod Clerk at clerk@nwsynod.org.uk.

As an overnight conference, we hope to offer participants a safe place where together we can explore, question, and imagine how we will live into the Spirit's call to work for racial justice in our time.

To book your tickets, please ring Kerry at the office on 0161 769 1122 or email office@nwsynod.org.uk with 'Legacies of Slavery' in the subject.

We are restricting numbers to 50, so please book now to be sure of your place.
